Celebrating Our 27th Year 1985-2012

N.Q.A. N.J. Chapter #321

President's Message:

Happy New Year 2012

I hope you all had wonderful holidays. I know that I did. On January 1, 2012, I took a monumental step and entered the world of retirement. Many people retire without any second thoughts or angst. Mine had much angst and was four years in the making. I was giving up the law firm that I had created and nurtured. I would no longer wield the power or bear the responsibilities for my clients, employees, or the courts. Along with handing the firm over to my law partner, there was the challenge to define the fourth quarter of my life.

Luckily for me, my love of fabric and color led me to quilts. I now greet the day with hope and optimism rather than waiting for the next crisis to erupt. My challenges now are to decide which of my myriad projects I will attempt to complete before dragging a new project home, to learn as much as possible about quilts and the history surrounding them, and to provide leadership that will strengthen the Guild and the members.

In that vein, I am now challenging each of you. Become more active in the Guild. You will find that participation brings great joy in a job well done and the chance to interact with other members allowing you to make new friends. Open your heart to those less fortunate by creating charity quilts. The charity quilts you make show others that someone cares and is willing to spend precious time and ability bringing cheer to another. Push the envelope by seeking out new ideas and techniques to enhance whatever life quarter you are in. Most of all enjoy the journey.

—Ellen W. Hyers

The Storm at Sea Raffle Quilt is traveling again! This time the trip is to Mouse Creek in Howell for the months of January, February. In March it will go to the Quiltfest of NJ in Somerset. Enjoy seeing it there and encourage family and friends to buy tickets from Ruth Felipe. Her e-mail is: ruthfelipe@aol.com

Minutes of December 16, 2011:

1. The evening began with a delicious dinner, provided by all the members, followed by a wonderful show and tell.
2. Ruth F. has raffle tickets for anyone who needs more. Please keep selling them, as this is one of our major fundraisers.
3. Janet P. read a letter from Carol L. in Missouri, wishing everyone happy holidays. Also, Fran G.'s mother has passed away. Cards will be appreciated.
4. Anyone making a charity quilt will receive a smiley face in their passport. These can be used in place of missed meetings. There will be a charity quilt workshop on January 12, 2012 at Crafty Fabrics, 10:00-3:30. We will be making children's quilts. The rehab hospital in Toms River will get back to us regarding what they can use.
5. Keep making those small quilts for the show. Liz H. is collecting them.
6. Treasurer's report showed an ending balance of $7,823.62.
7. Blocks of the month were won by Janet P.
8. Pat T. read our correspondence. Quiltfest of NJ will be in Somerset March 1-4, 2012. The quilt guild of Brooklyn will have a show April 21-22, 2012. Rebecca's Reel will have their show on May 18-19, 2012 in Poricy Park in Middletown. Ocean Medical Center's maternity unit sent a thank you note. Two families will benefit from our charity quilts.
9. Door prizes were won by Mary Lou G., Peggy H., Kathy H., Janet R., Joyce W., Laura B., Shirley M. and Sue G.
10. Nancy D. passed out the second page of the mystery quilt instructions.
11. Laurie S. shared the Jewish tradition of Chanukkah by lighting a menorah.
* { Chanukkah is a minor holiday that is more cultural than religious. The lighting of candles is to commemorate the miracle in which lamp oil for 1 day, lasted eight days after the ancient Jewish temple was destroyed by the Syrian-Greek forces. The holiday marks the very first battle fought for religious freedom by the Maccabees. The word Chanukkah means "dedication" to Jewish worship, and in a larger sense, a recommitment to a spiritual quest and a reaffirmation of freedom.} *Edited for accuracy.
12. We wish everyone Happy Holidays and a healthy prosperous New Year.

Respectfully submitted.

Shirley Moramarco

SAVE the DATE by Genny V. Program News:

The Spring Luncheon date, April 6, 2013, is set. We have reserved a "Room with a View" at the Lobster Shanty in Point Pleasant, NJ. We will again, enjoy a feast, fellowship and a fabulous speaker!

Genny V. would like to remind members that there are a few spots open for both workshops coming up; Sashiko in March and Batik in May. Bring $10 for each workshop, to the January meeting & sign up. They promise to be very interesting!

Charity Quilts by Ellen

Next sew-in is January 12, 2012 from 9 to 3:30 at Crafty Fabrics making children's quilts. Two of our quilts went to maternity Ocean Medical Center. I am trying to line up another date in February.

2012 Quilt Show News:

Time to make and turn in items for the Country Store. We will explain the patterns at the February meeting. Bring in at least one project to work on & complete, at the February Meeting. Hand it in to Debbie Perks and then relax! You only have to complete the quilts you are entering. No sweat, right?!? Check the website for patterns & new "Poster of the Show"!

Ask Ruth F. for Raffle Tickets to give as gifts or for yourself: ruthfelipe@aol.com

Registration of show quilts will be explained at the Feb. meeting. Forms are available now online. The deadline for registration will be March 1st, 2012. You can fill out and submit forms as soon as you like. Even though the rules state that you can only register 2 quilts, there is a lot of flexibility; you may enter more quilts if we are short of our 100. We encourage everyone to enter at least 2

If you are new to the guild, we will need help at our quilt show to set up and work around the show. Send Laurie an e-mail if you have questions: ivschnitzer@comcast.net

For the January Program (Folded Ornaments)

There will be 25 kits available for the January Program. The kits make a Log Cabin Ornament. You can either use one of the kits already made or make one up yourself using the patterns in the November Newsletter for fabric requirements. Please bring a small iron with you if you have one and also bring a glue stick (acid free). If you have any questions email me at MRSLatte@comcast.net. Thanks - Marlene

"The Exchange": This is a new column for our members. Submit your newsletter copy in Arial font to the Editor at ivschnitzer@comcast.net Please make it concise and worthy. Nancy W. has a Singer sewing machine in a cabinet that she would like to find a home for. Contact her:
